School Unification Measure To Be Aired at Wed. Meeting

By DICK OSBORN

Trustees of the Moraga, Canyon, Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek elementary school districts will have the opportunity Wednesday to state their official feelings in unification of their elementary school districts and Acalanes Union High School District.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at Acalanes High School.

This will be the turning point in the unification study, which has been underway for more than a year under the direction of the Contra Costa County Committee on School District Organization.

(SEE EDITORIAL FRONT PAGE SECOND SECTION)

Here are the mechanics of the program.

On Wednesday, the school districts will be polled on their feelings toward unification. If the majority of them feel that it is worth further investigation, the study will be continued with the object of resolving several difficult procedural questions.

To date the Walnut Creek Elementary School District has come out unofficially in favor of unification, and Lafayette has indicated that it leans in the same direction.

IF THE GROUP feels that unification deserves more study, then the county committee will set about working out solutions to the following problems:

1. Should the entire area be unified, or only parts of it?
2. What will be the boundaries?
3. How many trustees will be on the new board, five or seven?
4. Will these trustees be elected "at large" or by wards?
5. Should the outstanding bonds for each district be "leveled" when the unification vote is taken, or at a later date?

Upon solution of these problems, an official vote will be taken with each board of trustees casting one vote, and each member of the county committee casting one vote.

THE COUNTY committee, established by the state, has 11 members elected from the county. These members may or may not be school board trustees.

Thus if this "augmented committee" — the county committee, plus one member from each school board involved, votes for unification, then the measure goes to the State Superintendent of Instruction, who either approves or denies the request.

Upon his approval, the Contra Costa County Superintendent of Schools' office calls an election in the area to be unified. A simple majority vote of the general electorate will serve to effect the unification.

ACCORDING TO H. B. de Fraga, Assistant County Superintendent of Schools, if things "move right along" the measure could be brought to a vote of the general public sometime this fall.

If the vote is taken, and passes, by December, the unification can be effected by the following July 1.

"However," said de Fraga, "I think it much more likely that the vote will come next year some time with unification to follow by July of 1961 if that is what the people want."

Meanwhile, the Lafayette board trustees called for other boards to consider a proposed resolution asking for the county committee to make a "detailed study" of "unification of the Acalanes area into three separate districts."

Board member W. B. Scarborough drafted a letter to be sent to the five school districts to "give (them) the opportunity to consider a specific possibility prior to the April 1 meeting."

The board approved the letter at its regular meeting held Monday night in district offices.

Text of the letter follows:

The Lafayette School Board has concluded that theoretically unification of elementary and high school administration is desirable from the standpoints of better curriculum planning and coordination, better follow-up of students, better counseling, and perhaps of slight financial saving.

We therefore feel the area should proceed with unification unless practical obstacles are discovered which would override the theoretical advantages.

We feel that such practical obstacles are present if the entire Acalanes area is unified, for there would be a significant loss of closeness of the citizens with the board and administration.

The district, probably at present and certainly as its population approaches its anticipated ultimate, would be too large for effective control by part-time board members.

In view of these facts, we propose to make the following motion at the April 1 Augmented County School District Reorganization Committee meeting:

It is moved that the Augmented Committee make a detailed study of unification of the Acalanes area into three separate districts. These districts should have boundaries roughly corresponding to the probable attendance areas of the present and proposed high schools.

Thus, one district would consist of the present Walnut Creek District plus the portion of the Lafayette District which lies within the Del Valle High School attendance area.

The second district would consist of the balance of the Lafayette District plus the Rheem Center area, thus corresponding to the present Acalanes plus the future Rheem Center High School attendance areas.

The third district would consist of the Orinda and Canyon Districts plus the remainder of Moraga, thus corresponding to the Miramonte plus proposed Bear Creek area High Schools.

The detailed study should consider the following:

(1)) Probable tax rate effects in the various elementary districts. This should be based on the Stanford School Planning Group studies with at least two separate assumptions as to the rate of growth of the Moraga area.

(2) Problems that each district would face in expanding from one to two high schools.

(3) Detailed boundary determination.

(4) Possibility of equitably splitting the assets of the existing districts into the proposed new districts.

This letter is written, not to persuade you to accept this particular proposal, but to give you the opportunity to consider a specific possibility prior to the April 1st meeting of the County Committee at which we must decide whether to continue consideration of unification. We would greatly appreciate your being prepared to discuss this proposal, as well as to present and discuss alternative ones.

Gill Will Retire as Fire Chief

Gerould L. Gill will retire June 30 as chief of the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District and as chairman of the district's board of fire commissioners.

In a statement, however, he indicated he would remain on the commission itself.

ACCORDING TO MARY Smith, deputy county clerk, the resignation request has not yet been submitted to the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

Commissioners of county fire protection district under the 1923 fire protection act are appointed by the county board of supervisors and are under its jurisdiction.

All fire districts bordering the East County District, Mt. Diablo, Central, Orinda, with the exception of the Lafayette Fire district, are under the jurisdiction of the board of supervisors.

Lafayette's board of fire commissioners are eleeted under an 1883 law and are autonomous.

GILL, WHO FOR the past 13 years has been fire chief and commission president of the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District, has been criticized for his administration of the district.

The Sun recently disclosed taxpayers of the district paid the bill for classified telephone listings for five years for Gill's Marsh Creek Lodge.

Gill has defended his position in the telephone issue by stating the commission had approved the use of the Marsh Creek Lodge telephone for fire purposes as well as being Gill's personal telephone.

Gill has stated that he has not received any salary for acting as fire chief.

RECORDS OF County Auditor Howard McNamer show Gill, his wife and sons were paid $6624.25 during 1958 for "services rendered."

Camp Fire Girl Rape Case Plagues Scout Cookie Sale

By JACK SEYMOUR

Precautions are always made against a tragic repetition of the Candy Rogers case among girl scouts in this area, parents were assured yesterday by Mrs. Vera Freeman, Mt. Diablo Girl Scout Council president.

According to the official policy of the Girl Scouts of the United States, 155 East 44th Street, New York 17, N. Y., young girls are forbidden to sell cookies or anything else in streets, or anywhere that involves "accosting strangers in public places."

CANDY ROGERS was a 9-year-old Spokane Camp Fire girl whose ravished body was found this week in a woods after a 16-day search.

Candy disappeared March 6 while selling Camp Fire mints. She was the victim of a sex fiend who strangled her with a piece of her own slip, police said. She had been raped, strangled and buried under a pile of brush in a remote area.

GIRL SCOUT policy says, "It is unwise to have young persons, particularly young girls, approach strangers in public places and ask them for money, since danger to the individual girl may result."

Mrs. Freeman said, "Scouts only approach family, friends, or very close neighbors."

She added, "Intermediate and senior scouts generally work in groups under the supervision of a leader, or, with the permission and knowledge of parents, may sell cookies with another scout."

The local Camp Fire mint sale was completed in February.

Brownies, who are young girl scouts in the age group of Candy Rogers, are specifically singled out by national policy.

"IT IS still agreed that it is not wise for Brownie Scouts to participate in sales or any situation requiring contact with the public," the national policy states. "They can do their part at home and in their immediate neighborhoods," it adds.

MRS. FREEMAN said "Seniors who have the privilege of selling from a booth in a store, bank or theater, must have adult supervision. . ."

The Mt. Diablo Council has had more than its share of difficulties this year with the cookie sale which begins next Friday.

FIRST, there were rumors that the cookies were non-union made. This story was promptly squelched by an exclusive story in the Sun on March 13.

SECOND, the "non-union" whispering campaign developed into a union official's vocal complaint that the cookies were purchased by a firm whose headquarters are out of the state.

This "tempest in a cookie jar" subsided after explanations were made.

Scout council officials explained —at great length and with an air of patient resignation—that the reason the cookies were purchased was because "the cookies taste good, like cookies should!'

THE BAKER was changed from a California firm which produced them last year because of complaints about their products flavor, scout officials wearily explained.

This week came the new rumors that girl scouts would be running the risk of molestation by "sex fiends" if they were permitted to sell the cookies.

A LOCAL scout official indignantly said, "I thought the 'non-union' and 'out-of-state' accusations were bad enough. But this is a new low in rumor-mongering.

"What," she asked, "can make people stoop so low?"

Mrs. Freeman pointed out that the sales "have been going on for years and years. Scout officials on the national level agree that this is very beneficial to the girls in many ways."

She added:

"Before the start of the sale, resource material is mailed to leaders suggesting ways in which the proposed sale can become a very real part of the troop program — in the general field of selling; courtesy, bright smiles and a neat appearance are pointed out by a little play-acting, taking turns being the buyer or seller.

"Efficiency is practiced with play money so that correct change will be watched and charts are shown for keeping records of boxes sold or on hand.

"Troops are encouraged to discuss plans and projects, estimate how much money they will need and translate this into how many boxes or cases of cookies it will be necessary for them to sell to attain their goal.

"This is excellent training in long range planning and budgeting.

"Although the cookies sell for only 50 cents a box, 21 cents is earned for scouting, and to improve camps Sierra Woodlands and Twin Canyon," she concluded.

Fire Causes $4,500 Damage In Murphy Home

By DAN WILLIAMS

Fire broke out last Sunday at the home of Lila Murphy, a well known dance instructor of 71 El Toyonal, at approximately 9:30 a.m. It was caused by a faulty water heater.

The kitchen, laundry room, and breakfast room were destroyed. Damage was estimated at approximately $4,500.

MRS. MURPHY was in her bedroom when she saw smoke creeping out the kitchen door. She opened the door to see what was happening, and smoke came gushing all over the house. She quickly rushed out.

Then, remembering her dog, Tina, she went back into the house. Mrs. Murphy could hardly see but she found the dog at the foot of her bed.

Fireman George Biasatti ventilated the roof and George Damberg was the first in the house.

Four pieces of equipment responded to the call. There were two 1,000 gallon pumpers, one chief's car, and one inspector's car.

Mrs. Murphy said, "I wish to express my thanks to the Orinda Fire Department for its prompt action in extinguishing the fire. Had it not been put out so promptly, my house could have been totally destroyed."

'Strength in Numbers' Theme for Orinda Group

Are Orinda property taxes going to leap sky-high?
Can I continue to afford to live in this community?
What about future development?
Can we stand together?

The answers to these questions and many more can be found by joining the Orinda Association, according to Dave Young, membership chairman for the group.

The association this week launched an all-out drive to encourage residents and property owners to join with it in planning and developing this community's future.

Young said that the association is, "in efefct, our only 'local government.'

"Our group is made up of people who are vitally interested in the growth of Orinda and it is important that we represent the entire community," he continued.

"That is why we are urging every family to become a member. In this way we gain strength from numbers and can make our voice heard by governmental agencies who control our destinies."

DUES IN the association are $2 for a "Mr. and Mrs." membership; $1 for an individual, it was pointed out by Phil Mittell, publicity chairman.

Checks may be sent to the association at Post Office Box 97, Orinda.

A GENERAL meeting of the membership will be held Monday, April 13, at Orinda School auditorium.

Thomas G. Heaton, director of planning of the county planning commission, will discuss "The Status of the General Plan for the Orinda Area."

Another speaker will be County Assessor C. L. Dunklee whose subject is "Our County Re-Assessment Program and What You Can Expect."

THEY WILL be introduced by Mel F. Nielsen, county supervisor for district 2.

"These speakers will discuss matters of great concern to Orindans," Vic Kingston, vice president of the group, said.

"The association constantly strives to bring the full facts about current community affairs to its membership."

Kingston joined with other association officials in urging 100 per cent community participation in the civic group.

Danny's Fate Tugs Hearts; Pockets Emptied for Fund

A little boy . . . a dream of life . . . an appeal . . . and friends, neighbors and perfect strangers opened their purses and emptied their pockets this week.

Little Danny Isola, 7½, will have the delicate and rare heart operation he desperately needs if contributions keep coming in.

AS OF NOON yesterday, more than $3,380 has been sent to the "Dollars for Danny" fund at the Central Valley National Bank, Orinda.

But much more is needed, according to Mrs. Harold Engman, chairman of the campaign.

Goal for the campaign is at least $5,000. In a similar case—that of David Stewart, a 29-month-old Sharp Park boy—Bay Area residents donated $10,000 for the vital surgery.

David is recovering from the unique operation at Children's Memorial Hospital, Chicago.

Danny is suffering from transposition of the great blood vessels to and from the heart.

DR. SAUL ROBINSON of Stanford Pediatric Clinic, says that unless the operation is performed Danny will eventually die.

The surgery is performed only by Dr. Thomas G. Baffes, who developed the operation.

Prior to this first radical surgery technique, children with this congenital condition were doomed.

Mrs. Engman said she is "touched and gratified" at the response since the Sun's story about Danny appeared last Friday.

"COMPLETE strangers have come by my home with money," she said. "People along Danny's father's mail route have contributed willingly and generously."

Danny's father, Larry Isola, is a letter carrier in Orinda.

The committee sent letters to residents along the route on Saturday.

TO SPARE him embarrassment of delivering the letters to the 460 homes on his route, the letter was sent Saturday—Larry's day off.

"People have been just wonderful," Mrs. Engman continued. "But we know we will need more transportation, the operation and post-operative care."

Meanwhile, Mrs. Hubert Voight designed and executed 50 posters with contribution containers and placed them in stores from Walnut Creek to Orinda.

The Orinda Country Club sent letters to its 700 members, asking for contributions and saying: "as you make your gift remember that but for the grace of God, the tragic plight of Larry's family might be yours. . ."

Larry is a part-time golf caddy at the club when not on his postal rounds.

At Wednesday's Orinda Rotary Club luncheon, members "passed the hat" for Danny and collected $188.50 in a matter of minutes.

A spokesman for the Internal Revenue Service in San Francisco told the Sun yesterday that the "Dollars for Danny" fund is tax-exempt. That is, Danny's father will not have to pay income tax on the money received. It is classified as a gift.

Adults! Kids! Special 'Shot' Clinic Available!

Polio is no respecter of age!

From 2 months to 102 years, you can get polio — still!

True, the incidence of polio has fallen since the development and distribution of Salk vaccine, but what of those who are not vaccinated?

Taking these people into account, a special immunization clinic will be held April 3 at Veterans Hall, Mt. Diablo Boulevard at First Street, Lafayette, from 2 to 4 p.m.

VACCINE is available for everybody, and children and adults alike, who have not received their Salk injections, or started on the series, are urged to drop in at the clinic.

In addition, regular clinics will be held every fourth Wednesday at the Veterans Hall in Walnut Creek from 2 to 4:45 p.m.

There is no charge for these shots, administered by the County Health Department.

In addition to polio shots, immunization shots for diphtheria, tetanus, and smallpox will be available. The health department recommends that school children have a booster every five years after their first series of diphtheria and tetanus injections, and smallpox immunization should be repeated every five years.

The health department suggests that all parents make arrangements for themselves and their children with their family physician, but for those unable to see a private doctor, the clinic facilities are available.

Annual Easter Color Contest Gets Underway

Some 27 cash prizes are being offered in The Sun's annual Easter Coloring Contest. There are nine $3 prizes; nine $2 prizes and nine $1 prizes being offered by merchants participating in the Easter Coloring Contest.

The rules are simple: Any child to age 11 may enter, except children of the sponsors or employees of The Sun.

Any child may enter as many cartoons as he wishes, but each finished cartoon must be mailed or taken to the merchants whose name appears on the cartoon.

All entries must be in not later than 5 p.m., April 4.

The name, address and age must be plainly printed in the space provided on each cartoon submitted.

Each store will judge its own cartoons and all decisions will be final. Winners will be notified and all entries become the property of the merchant receiving them. None can be returned.

Golfers Sued For Allegedly Hitting Boys

Two Oakland boys have brought law suits against two Orinda men, charging that the older men struck them with golf clubs at the Orinda Golf Club.

Defendants in the action are John Anderson of 7 Haciendas and Wallace Marsh Jr. of 17 Dias Dorados, both of Orinda.

The boys, Craig Gudmundsen and George Barron, both 11 years old, said in the complaint filed by their parents that the men struck them while the boys played on the golf course green occupied by the golfers.

They are asking for $5,700 in damages. The suit was filed in Richmond Municipal Court.

Services Held For Mrs. Lahey

A Rosary was said March 22 for Mrs. Helen C. Lahey who died March 20.

Mrs. Lahey is survived by her husband Russell Lahey of 4 Loma Vista; a son, Edward of Walnut Creek, and a daughter, Lynne, of Orinda.

A Requiem Mass was held Monday at Santa Maria Church followed by interment at Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

Cost of Stewart Boy's Surgical Expenses Told

The family of little David Stewart who is continuing his slow but steady recovery from rare heart surgery gave Orindans some financial figures Wednesday night.

Residents are hoping to raise enough money to send Danny Isola, 7½, to Chicago's Children's Memorial Hospital for the same operation.

The surgeon received a $1,000 fee, Thomas Stewart of Sharp Park said. The hospital charges have reached $2,000.

Transportation for the 29-month-old Stewart boy and his parents cost another $700.

Thomas Stewart has returned home but David is still hospitalized and his mother is at his bedside.

No estimate was given of the living costs of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart while in Chicago.

Bay Area residents donated $10,000 for the Stewart fund.

Beat South Africa Cry Resounds!

By BOB RAPIDA
"Silly Season Editor"

With cries of "Beat South Africa", the Galloping Gaels of St. Mary's attacked a plain old-fashioned phone booth last Friday and crammed 20 men inside.

Although Easter vacation had just started on the Gael campus, St. Mary's rooters, professors and Moraga Valley residents gathered on the green to witness the attempt of the St. Mary's Phone Booth Cramming Squad.

HERE'S HOW it all started:

Some two weeks ago, when 15 students at England's Cambridge University wedged themselves into a booth, the entire free world was in an uproar: The honor of country was at stake since the English had nabbed the championship of a new sport which they had coined, without giving a competitive challenge to other countries.

Then, a few days later from Hatfield Technical College, at Hatfield England, word came that 19 students were claiming the world telephone booth cramming title.

The two English reports were quickly followed by a dispatch from South Africa where 25 students had wedged themselves into a telephone kiosk.

SO — UPHOLDING American honor on the playing field and using Yankee "know how," St Mary's commissioned its first squad from the ranks of rugby, track, hoop and chess players to field the first phone boothing squad.

As Chief Al Baitx of the Moraga Fire Department stood by with two engines, five men and rescue equipment (as well as providing ladders and vantage points for one cameraman and reporters) The cheers started: BEAT SOUTH AFRICA! BEAT SOUTH AFRICA! !

Slowly at first, and then with mounting excitement, the squad members started crammin'.

Four men were in, the foundation was laid—then it was 10, 15 and soon, a resounding shout of the 300 spectators announced that 20 men had entered the phone booth provided by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

ON THE basis of cubic displacement, the St. Mary's squad claimed the world's championship (Informed sources claim the English phone booth is larger than the American variety. No official statement on the subject has been dispatched from international headquarters, wherever that might be).

But, in any case, the Gaels claimed the title on mathematical grounds.

Yet, a disconcerting report was received from abroad as the victory celebration was being planned.

Not since the days of "squirming Herman' or "Little Johnnie Crow" had such a fete been underway, but alas, the English had thrown a proviso into the sport demanding that a person be able to answer the phone when it rings to qualify for the "grand prix".

Much to the chagrin of the Gael squad, they had been disqualified on a technical count: they had removed the telephone from the booth to allow three more contestants to enter.

THE ISSUE is still not decided, but Central Contra Costa County has now as its claim, the county title in phone booth cramming.

A short note was received from the PT&T following the contest indicating that telephone booths may also be used by one (or more as has been proved) for making telephone calls.

FALLING APART at the seams (the students not the phone booth) after cramming 20 St. Mary's College residents. This isn't much of a sentence, but neither is the record set by the lads themselves. By the By even though the Gaels did try to beat South Africa's record it seems that Canada's Toronto University beat them or someone.

Egg Hunt On If Weather Man Smiles

The brightly colored symbols of Spring and youth—Easter Eggs—will be hunted by children at the Orinda Country Club Sunday.

Descending on the 16th fairway, youngsters in age groups from two to eight will search for the eggs while their parents cheer from the sidelines.

On hand will be O'Brien's famous dog acts to amaze and amuse the small fry. There will be races and prizes.

The weather bureau was pessimistic about clear skies and would not comment on the possibility of rain but several rabbits were seen buying umbrellas.

If rain falls, the event will be cancelled.

Cadillac Owner Gets Free Ride

An Orinda woman who owns a Cadillac, but who prefers sports cars, was sent home by Walnut Creek police, last week with the $4.90 cab fare paid out of the Salvation Army fund.

The La Vuelta resident was found poking around a sports car parked in the Contra Costa Times parking lot, and was collared by an executive.

She told police her Cadillac uses too much gas and is too hard on the tires and her husband won't give her enough money to keep it running.

That's why she was so interested in the sports car, she said. She was especially fascinated by the location of the motors, she said. Some are in front and some are in back, she added.

She added that she is suing her husband for divorce.

What we already know about your 1963 car

The engine of your 1963 car will be lighter and will give you improved performance, including better gasoline mileage.

We know this because Standard's scientists are already developing gasolines of the future. To test them, we use experimental engines installed in current model cars. The engines are obtained from auto makers and modified in our laboratories to match engine design forecasts.

These future fuels are given the toughest possible workout — on the road, as well as on this "indoor highway." Here we can create almost any kind of weather or driving situation at the touch of a button.

Gasolines are tested at varying speeds and engine loads to simulate mountains, traffic, freeways . . . under climatic conditions ranging from 120° desert heat to 40° below zero cold.

Your car of the future may never experience such punishing conditions. But if it does, we'll be ready with gasolines that will deliver all the power and performance built into its engine. Research that leads to new and improved gasolines is one of the ways the people at Standard are planning ahead to serve you better.

AND THEN, CRASH! That appears to be the comment of Walnut Creek Police Officer Jack Francis as he explains a diagrammed problem to Walnut Creek Judicial District Judge Betsy FitzGerald Rahn and Art Dambacher, director of adult education for the Acalanes High School District. This is all part of the Driver Improvement School which will commence operations April 6. —Photo by Walnut Creek Police Department.

Violators Beware! It's Traffic School Time!

The Walnut Creek Judicial District's first driver imporovement school will commence operations on the evening of April 6 at Acalanes High School, announced Judge Betsy FitzGerald Rahn.

The opening of the schools fulfills one of the campaign promises made by udge Rahn in her campaign for the judgeship of the Walnut Creek udicial District.

THE DRIVER Improvement School is made possible by the cooperation and combined efforts of personnel of the Walnut Creek Judicial Court, Art D. Dambacher, director of adult edcuation, Acalanes High School District; Chief Leigh M. Brilliant of the Walnut Creek Police Department and Captain Russell Magill of the Martinez office of the California Highway Patrol.

Officer Jack Francis of the Walnut Creek Police Department will be the instructor of the class.

Driver Improvement School will be held at Acalanes High School. The session will include two 2-hour periods commencing at 7:30 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday nights, April 6 and 8.

Students will be assigned to the class by Judge Rahn as part of the sentence for certain traffic violations. The class will also be open without charge to any member of the public who cares to attend. Information as to subsequent dates on which the school will be held may be obtained from the Adult Education Department, Acalanes High School, or the Walnut Creek Police Department.

IT IS CONTEMPLATED that Driver Improvement School classes will be held once a month at first, and probably once every two weeks at a later time.

Persons who are found guilty of certain traffic violations are assigned to attend Driver Improvement School as part of their sentence for the violation, explained udge Rahn. Attendance for such violations is compulsory.

Officer Jack Francis, instructor for the school, was formerly an instructor in the Oakland Traffic School. He explained that the course of instruction will cover such subjects as a discussion of certain sections of the California Vehicle Code, violations which constitute major sources of accidents, stopping distances of automobiles at different speeds, general discussion of the relation between traffic violations and accident rate and others.

CHIEF LEIGH M. Brilliant of the Walnut Creek Police Department stated that statistics show that in areas which have such traffic schools in operation the violations of traffic laws have tended to decrease and the accident rate has dropped.

Dambacher stated that arrangements have been made so that there will be no cost to the taxpayers for this program.

Newly elected to the council's board of governors was W. G. Buchanan, chairman, Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

Re-elected vice president representing Contra Costa County was Thomas M. Carlson of Carlson, Collins, Gordon and Bold.

Re-elected as members of the council's board of governors were Frederick Bold Jr., president, Richmond Chamber of Commerce; V. A. Fink, president, Contra Costa Development Association; Carl F. Lyford, mayor, city of Richmond; and C. W. Rehfuss, general manager, Richmond Refinery, Standard Oil Company of California.

Park Council Wants Mt. Diablo Park Money Kept

The Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council, while not against full development of the Franks tract as a park area, is also in favor of keeping all funds alloted for expansion of Mt. Diablo State Park for the purpose.

Recently, proposals have been made that the funds alloted for Mt. Diablo State Park be transferred to Franks tract.

A letter by the council to the State Park Commission read in part as follows:

". . . WITH SUCH relatively minor expenditures slated for Contra Costa County as these two projects entail, we are bitterly disappointed that either one should not be carried out as planned.

"We have strongly supported both and we continue to do so. We now understand that rising land values have made the Franks Tract appropriation inadequate.

"Since this project is already under way, and is highly popular, we are asked to relinquish the Mt. Diablo funds so that Franks Tract can be successfully completed.

"It has been represented to our group that the Mt. Diablo expansion probably will not be carried out anyway, because of its low priority and the overall shortage of funds for the five-year plan. If we felt that this kind of choice were inevitable, we would most certainly support the proposal.

"WE WOULD rather see a completely Franks Tract project than a half-completed one, with Mt. Diablo lost regardless of the outcome.

"However, we are not satisfied that this choice is a fair or a real one. Each park project should stand on its own merits.

"The question of where to obtain additional funds for Franks Tract seems to us a separate one and not related to Mt. Diablo.

"We do not believe the solution is to sacrifice one small project in our county to another. Mt. Diablo has a deep and warm place in our hearts. We believe that it, too, should be considered on its own merits.

"We do not feel that a serious and sincere evaluation of the Mt. Diablo project has yet been made, in an effort to determine whether it can be accomplished within the five-year plan.

"THE CONTRA COSTA Park and Recreation Council therefore opposes any transfer of funds allocated to Mt. Diablo until we are satisfied that this has been done. We respectfully urge the State Park Commission to consider activating the Mt. Diablo project on its own merits at this time.

"If sufficient evidence (which we have not yet seen) indicates that this cannot be done, then we would with extreme reluctance and regret feel forced to concur in the protested transfer.

"However, we believe such an action is premature, since it will not be known for some time exactly how many dollars will be needed to complete the Franks Tract project.

"Any action taken now should therefore guarantee that any surplus of funds remaining after acquisition of the planned minimum at Franks Tract will be expended on Mt. Diablo.

Girls From Same School Win Lions Speech Contest

Two Miramonte High School students, Sheryl Studley and Nadya Roegiers, will compete in the regional division of the Lions Club speech contest to be held at Miramonte Friday at 8 p.m.

The winner of this contest will go on to Hobergs on May 1 to compete on a higher level.

The ultimate goal is a $1,500 scholarship which is won by the state finalist.

"THIS IS quite a tribute to both Nadya and Sheryl," Miss Norma Moser, Miramonte speech teacher, said.

"Rarely does this happen when two students from the same school compete at the regional level. In fact, a contestant does well to get past the zone contest."

Miss Moser went on to say that the one who qualifies has only two more hurdles to jump—Hobergs and the state finals at Santa Barbara later this spring.

Sheryl Studley, sponsored by the Moraga Lions Club, qualified by winning the zone contest at Danville over students from San Ramon, Acalanes and Las Lomas.

Nadya Roegiers, Orinda Lions' entry, won the zone contest at Montclair. Other students in competition were from Holy Names High, Oakland, and Berkeley High.

Civil Service Classes Offered

The course in Civil Service training will again be offered during the spring term and will start Wednesday from 7 to 10 p.m., at Mt. Diablo High School.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brooks will conduct this class, and will cover clerical arithmetic, grammar, punctuation, and capitalization. Vocabulary and spelling, filing, communication, office machine material, and trial tests will also be covered in the class.

'Our Jerusalem' Reviewed

On Tuesday, March 24, Mrs. Alfred F. Haskell of Serrano Court entertained at luncheon for a group of friends. Many of them have traveled extensively in the Holy Land, as has the hostess.

The luncheon took place before the monthly book review of the Lafayette Women's Club.

The reviewer, Mrs. Irma Ledgerwood, a former teacher and world traveler, graciously gave her review of "Our Jerusalem" by Bertha Spafford Vester.

This review was particularly entertaining, interesting and enlightening because of the fact that the reviewer is a personal friend of the Spafford, Vester Family. The family has lived in Jerusalem for over 70 years, devoting their lives to helping the peoples of that country.

Film on Dope Addiction To be Shown at GOP Meet

"I Am an Addict" is the title of an unrehearsed police film which will be shown at the Pine Grove School on April 14 at 8:30 p.m.

The film was taken by the Berkeley Police Department, using an actual addict. It shows him making his source contact; "cutting" dope for resale.

It depicts the addict "taking a fix," and gives close-ups of the addict's reaction to the narcotic.

It is a most dramatic and unusual program sponsored by the Orinda Young Republicans.

Marijuana cigarettes, opium pipes, needles, heroin, opium lamps and other items associated with the narcotic traffic will be shown and discussed.

The director of special investigations for the Berkeley Police Department, Inspector Michael S. Reppas, will narrate the film and discuss the narcotic problem after the film.

Reppas is a recognized authority in this field.

Various items used by addicts and photographs will be on display beginning April 6 in the windows of the Orinda Pharmacy and American Trust Company.

Admission is 25 cents and is not open to anyone under 18.

You Go To My Head

DECK the stores w/Easter Bunnies, aren't the latest hats The Honeys?

Pick one out that's very Swishy, one for Lid, Mid, Tish & Wishy.

OVER there's a MR. JOHN, let's have some to put upon, the heads of Myrtle & Yvonne, & for Sylvia, one Chiffon, for Lois, Lefty, Nancy, too, Esther, Hope, Virginia Lu.

And still another Emme cloche for Lucie, Claire, for Ann & Jan & Jean & Millie, Betty, Billie, Pauline, Tillie.

SALLY VICTOR, drip a posy, on hats for Margaret, Ruth & Rosey.

An Oscar Luca-labeled ret. for Jane & Janet, Hilja pet . . . Say, just HOW glamorous can we get?

Hand me down a Ben Reig bonnet, put Marguerite's, Madeline's name on it.

One to make us greenly stare, one w/lots of jeune fille flair, one for Gen & Fran & Maudie, one that's veddy, veddy haughty.

The most expensive Milan straw, for Peggy, Pam & Mary Grab. Italian straws w/soft patina, for Mildred, Marv, E. Scatena.

CATCH a cunning Christian Dior, for Helen, Jackie, Doris, Flor . . . One to send us in a Tiz, for Gertrude, Dorothy, Ginnie, Liz.

Out of tissue, take DACHE. Have yourself an Easter Day, Marian, Laurie, Emma, Fay . . . Evelyn, Edith, Melba Bray.

OSCAR Friedman, April Fool, find us one that's swathed in tulle. Find it quick for Pat & Nat, Carol, Karen, Joy & Jewel.

TWO MORE DAYS to do our shopping, for Heady Hats at prices whopping. . .

Mirror, Mirror, Quelle Illusion! All these hats just lend confusion! After all is said & done, we'll end up wearing last year's one!

If you can't lick 'em, join 'em

IT HAPPENS Every Spring . . . Beautiful weather until Easter Vacation. Then a big cloudburst to dampen spirits & things start off w/a bang! Well, the sun DID come out, much to Mama's relief & the kiddies behaved for the Good Easeter Bunny. No?

The children went ice-skating, roller-skating, clothes shopping and Mommies just went C-R-A-Z-Y. A real Mad Hatter's Merry-Go-Round. How did OUR mothers ever outfit us inside-out, stem to stern Back in the Old Days? Here, half the week was spent waiting . . . in stores, in movie lines, at the dentist, in the doctor's office, in the shoe department. After all the trouble, DON'T forget to Preserve The Picture, don't forget the film for Sunday's picture-taking.

IF YO UCAN'T LICK 'EM, etc. . . Things got noisy here too, so off we went to Skate Haven out WC way where the Wild Ones could burn up their energy on the ballbearings. We intended to sneak out shopping, but succumbed to the roller skates, too, for the first time in YEARS, repeat DECADES & had just as good a time as the children. Probably better. We can STILL skate. So can Stan Hunn who on his Day Off was skating there w/his sons & obviously enjoying himself, too.

Back on the local scene mid-wk. were the Hugh Riegers who had taken Paul & Shelley down to Disneyland. And still starry-eyed last Sunday afternoon after a visit to the SF Planetarium at GG Park was Tom Howard who had found the excursion a commendable outing w/his Scouts.

Happy Homecoming, Happy Hunters!

The Fernstens, Ernie & Doris, were back from their Mexican Safari. And if anyone knows a braver gal than Doris, tell me! Here is a woman who nonchalantly takes a nap out in the midst of the wildest jungle, the kind w/parakeets & macaws all cackling away in the tangled vernal growth. She had a slight optical illusion & that's all, mind you, on awakening to find brilliant flowers surrounding her where none had been before. Closing her eyes, they disappeared when she opend them again. She blinked a couple of times & then called Ernie. He had been dazzled, too, & almost plucked a posy for her of the same startling brilliance. They turned out to be sand crabs, Silly, and if you'd like the story straighter, get it from her travelogue.

The Fernstens left w/four suitcases & returned w/eight, full of treasures from Taxco, the picturesque town of tiny narrow streets. Flying into Guadalajara they were greeted by Jackie Archer's parents, the H. A. Rayners who have retired there. They did further sightseeing in Puerta Vallarta, Mexico City & landed the big fish they were after, one of which is being mounted for their mantel, O Happy homecoming for happy hunters!

EASTER WEEK Around. . . Irene MacDonald & her young son shopping for Mr. MacD's B'day card & presents, Tues. last being His Big Day. . . The moppets attending Marc Lipovac's B'day party setting a record—arriving at 10 AM & leaving at 4 PM from a Big Day that incl. Hobo Lunches carried on a stick into Tilden.

Ruth Gilwee & her dghtr. Janet buying dimestore Easter surprises. . . Fran Dirickx & her dghtr. Joanne another Duo, The Dirickxes son laid low w/his leg is a cast after a ski fall last wknd. . . Chris Lang still dewey-eyed in deep deliberation after an afternoon of trying on Easter chapeaux. She thinks the Dior creation will win out! We'll see!

Elsie Harmon happily marketing. . . Kay Brush & her tiny dght. looking like a Live Ad for Tide-Clean in their brighter than whiter sweaters. . . The Vernon Lorches back in town Tues. from a Miami Beach Convention. Ditto for Jeannette & Frank Wright home after a wk. of mixing business w/pleasure at Pebble Beach & Del Monte . . . Charlotte Chapple loaded down w/paper rolls — the posters she cleverly concocted to publicize the Orinda Parents' Club Rag Drive which is your chance to get rid of what WASN'T even good enough for the Rummage. Paper Bags will be distributed & a Big Bin stands waiting in the Orinda School Hall.

The Bob Millers of So. Trail are pampering a nice pooch, a young dog mostly Basset, they found wandering the Dam Rd. It's a male, no tag, just a WC Rabies tag (no good for tracking down owner) & a thin red collar. If he's yours, holler, else he'll soon be sent to Pets & Pals. Call CL 4-3491. It's a Dog's Life & a good one that the Vern Nelson's new pet police dog is leading. . . The neighborhood children call him Rinty or Rin-Tin-Tin but his official name is very fancy.

IS YOUR APPETITE JADED? Do your parties lack a piece de resistance? Aren't you sometimes tempted to load up on the fascinating fare at Phair's, f'instance, like Chocolate Ants & Fried Grasshoppers, or are those Old Hat to you? Try a tin, brave one, of rattlesnake meat, Shark's Fin Soup, Caterpillar (oof!) or silkworms. But Not For Me.

Good way to spend a rainy afternoon—checking off items like Fried Zaza insects, Alligator Soup, Kangaroo Soup & Steaks, Skewered Octopus, Whaleskin, Lotus Root & Lava Worms. It took us twenty years to get to Frogs Legs. Now we can't leave 'em alone, but don't be bashful, you go first. The Buffalo Stew intrigues us. Is that what they meant by "preserving the buffalo?"

Wine by Christian Brothers & Art by Orindans is the more palate-able afternoon offered by the Santa Maria Women's Club on Sunday April 12, 2-5 to be held at the Willows. . . Among the prizes to be awarded are a Loaf of French Bread, a Jug of Wine & a Hunk of Cheese (we guess, they mean the Whole Wheel). For tickets, 1.50, call Elizabeth Gould, CL. 4-3816. Marge Dolio of the Willows promises a good chicken dinner for $1.80 to follow at five. . . See you THERE?

Las Trampas Pool Families To Meet On Season Plans

Arrangements for 1959 operation and management of Las Trampas Pool will be set at a general meeting of its 200 member families Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Fairview School auditorium.

The members will deal with questions of paving their parking lot, adding equipment, hired and volunteer services of members, operating practices, swim lessons, admission of guests, costs for the coming year and similar matters of interest to the group.

Bob Prichard, president of the organization, describes Tuesday's meeting as "a once-a-year opportunity for all of the pool members to take part actively in laying the plans which will guide their officers for the season ahead."

Meanwhile the Olympic - size pool at St. Mary's Road and Hamlin Drive has already been opened this week for use by its members during the spring vacation.

With the school-age members especially in mind, Bob Vincent operations manager, has arranged for full pool services between 1:30 and 5:30 each afternoon. After Sunday, the pool will close again until regular summer operation begins in May.

There has been a replacement on the board of directors. Increase in other community obligations caused Bill Sims to resign. To replace him, the board elected Cliff Rudden, 3321 Mildred Lane, as a director and vice-president.

Scouts Swim, Fish, Race During Outing

Boy Scout Troop 233 camped recently at Tunitas Beach, near Half Moon Bay.

After Saturday morning patrol competition for the camp award, Scouts vigorously pursued swimming, raft racing on the breakers and fishing. Bob Buonacorsi proved to be the champion at surf fishing.

Scouts who were along were Russell Birkhead, Bob Buonacorsi, Garry Hanks, David Hobbs, David Lewis, Billy Sommer, Allan Johanson, Bob Olberg, Andy Robertson, Bob Penprase and John Weatherbe.

They were accompanied by Scoutmaster Ken Weaver and Assistant Scoutmaster Art Bertolero. Ralph Olberg conducted the trip.

Plans have been made for an overnight family snow trip to Santa Cruz Lodge, April 4 and 5.

Prospective Scouts and their Dads are welcomed to visit the Troop and attend the April outing.

Bicycle riding can be fun but also dangerous, especially for those who don't know or don't obey the rules of the road.

Easter Egg Hunt Set for Rheem Shopping Center

A big Easter Egg Hunt will be held tomorrow starting at 10 a.m. in the Rheem Shopping Center.

Sponsored by the Moraga Mothers' Club and the Lions Club, the event will take place in the baseball field next to the Rheem Center parking lot.

CHILDREN 10 years of age or younger are eligible to participate, according to Mrs. Marie Wright, Mothers' Club co-chairman. Ray Devin is Lions chairman.

There will be first and second prizes for each hunt.

Hunts will be held for boys and girls up to age of three; four to six; seven and eight; and nine and 10. There will be separate contests for boys and girls.

Merchants of the Center have joined together to present this event, cooperating with Lions and Mothers.

Winners Show At College

Art work by 14 Acalanes High School students is now being exhibited at the California College of Arts and Crafts, Oakland. The paintings won awards in the regional Scholastic Magazine Art contest held recently.

Winning entries include work by Barbara Moore, Doug Southworth, Fred Lohden, Pamela Baker, Steve Garcia, Raylene Herman, Pat Fredricks, Joan Littell, Lloyd Osgood, Barbara Renner and Linda Seawright.

Also Clance Soares, Sherine Gidley and Linda Quenzel. The students' instructor is Patricia Lucero.

Science Fair To be Held at Stanley School

The second annual Stanley School Science Fair will be held Monday and Tuesday in the auditorium.

After the Parents Club meeting on Tuesday the public is invited to see the science exhibits.

Winners will be announced at that time. First and second prize winners will represent the school at the annual Bay Area Science Fair in San Francisco.

The school has a mark to aim for because last year's winner won a merit award.

Interest is mounting among the students, so it promises to be both competitive and educationally profitable for all concerned.

Two Faculty Members Get Tenure Approval

Tenure has been granted to Mrs. Marjorie Coons and George Hewitt of the Lafayette Elementary School District.

Mrs. Coons is a first grade teacher at Vallecito School. Hewitt teaches Stanley School's seventh grade.

Board of trustees approved the tenures at a recent meeting.

Library Book Gift

The Lafayette School Board has accepted a gift of $200 from the Fairview School Parents Club. Money will buy library books.

Snow Found by Scouts During Weekend Jaunt

Boy Scout Troop 223 traveled to Camp Bray near Pinecrest March 7 for a weekend of skiing.

Traveling by Greyhound bus, plus a station wagon for emergency use (luckily not needed), the Troop found the snow at the Boy Scout skiing camp excellent this year for all their weekend events.

Several of the fathers accompanied the Troop members.

Phillip Simon, Tommy Higgins, John Hawkins, Ross Brigante, Steve Spurlock, Bill McHale, Tom Peery, Bobby Stoops, Brian Childs, Bart Rocca, Lee Schlenker, Jim O'Leary, Peter Reis, Jim Ingham, Bill Brinkerhoff.

Robby Siebert, Steve Scott, Lee Scott, Mark Kaplan, Jim Pedder, Andy Picard, Gregg Rapp, Greg Langford.

Committeemen accompanying Scouts were Paul Childs, Elliot Hartman, Burwell Spurlock, Scoutmaster Barney Rocca, Norm Hawkins, Joe Lahey, Don Dickson, Allan Siebert, Troop Chairman Lee Scott, Assistant Scoutmaster Bob Brigante.

Lafayette Girls To Appear in Cal Aquacade

To Unify or Not... That Seems to be the Question

To unify or not to unify, that is the question.

Or, in more local terms, the question is whether or not the Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Canyon and Moraga elementary school districts should unify with the Acalanes High School District.

D-Day for decision seems to be April 1—next Wednesday, although all countries won't be heard from until some time after that.

This is an important issue. It affects what are probably the two most important factors in the lives of most of the residents of this area—their children's education and their pocketbooks.

(For details of the unification procedure, see story in front section).

The mechanics for unification are clearly set out. It is a complicated procedure, but like most things, can be accomplished by taking one step at a time, if it is what the people wish.

WEDNESDAY'S meeting will not provide an official vote, but will merely decide whether or not the districts and the Contra Costa County Committee on School District Organization will continue the present study.

Present information and indications of some of the boards indicate that this study will continue with the purpose of answering some specific and difficult questions.

Although many of the facts are available, and most areas have been explored thoroughly during the past year by this committee, much remains to be answered specifically.

At this time it is difficult to make a decision on unification, but this is certainly the time to start thinking seriously about the issue.

THERE WILL BE opportunities during the coming months to hear this group in action and to arrive at the facts of the matter.

We do not know the answer.

But it is certainly an important issue and one which must be studied carefully during the next few months when a decision will have to be reached.

This is not a remote issue. It is happening now and it is well that we should be aware of it and the potential affect it has on our children and our homes.

We suggest that you keep posted on the developments throughout the coming months.

The Sun will provide the information.

You will have to make the decision.

Tighter Controls—a Way To a Lower Tax Rate...

And lo! A new recommendation from the county grand jury!

This time the grand jury's special staff of auditors has recommended the county cinch up on its financial controls.

Just what does this mean, exactly, and how does it affect us as taxpayers?

Let's look at the situation. The recommendations include the appointment of a county budget control officer; tightening of the fee collection system in the county recorder's office; annual examination of the social welfare office's books and others.

THE SUN HAS long advocated tight controls in county government and a close eye to county spending as the only method of keeping our tax rate anywhere near a decent level.

It has long appeared that there are two necessities required for the realization of this goal. One is the appointment of a strong county administrator—one who can bring the department heads into line and keep a strong administrative finger on the pulse of our rapidly expanding county government.

WITH THE APPOINTMENT of Joseph McBrien as County Administrator we started along this road to economical county government.

Now we have the recommendations of the grand jury to provide the other necessity.

Of course, the ultimate action is up to the board of supervisors. But as our representatives, this board should be interested in our welfare, and certainly providing the necessary services while keeping the tax rate at a minimum is to our benefit.

In 1957 there were considerable furor raised over the actions of certain employees in the county recorder's office. These actions were first reported in The Sun and led to the eventual trial and removal of the then county recorder.

BUT WITH TIGHTER internal controls and a good county administrator, there should be less incidence of this kind of incident, and a general improvement in the efficiency of our county government.

This improvement could only lead to the maximum use of our tax dollars, with the ultimate savings being returned to us in the form of lower taxes or increased improvements.

The grand jury has done an excellent job and these recommendations should certainly be heeded by the board of supervisors.

Everybody will benefit!

Jurisprudence vs. Heart

By BOB RAPIDA

Monday afternoon I was very, very proud to be a resident of Contra Costa County.

More specifiaclly, I was proud of the judicial system and in particular of a Superior Court Judge.

I HAVE RARELY spoken to a judge. I had never spoken to a judge concerning a decision he had made.

When we finished our conversation I felt here is a man who knows the law to the letter, but has not lost the precious virtue of compassion.

The case involved a juvenile, a 16-year-old boy.

NEITHER HIS name nor the facts are of great importance since Judge Thomas F. Fraga, the juvenile court justice, listens to hundreds of such cases in a year's time.

Yet, out of these many cases, Judge Fraga recalled a confused, rebellious boy and was able to say the matter had troubled him greatly.

Judge Fraga was so interested in the lad that he asked juvenile probation authorities to review several particulars, even though the youth's record and deportment were less than favorable.

THE JUDGE QUESTIONED the brother of the boy, an adult, he spoke to the boy's parents. He made a point of learning full particulars of this problem. (On the same day there were 18 similar matters on the judge's calendar).

Although the judge depends on the reports of probation deputies, doctors and the facts, he also uses an "unknown quantity" sometimes called "good judgment, common sense or mercy."

Perhaps the justice which the judge may decree seems unfair to parents or to the children who stand accused, but to the onlooker the jugde's positive attitude, devotion to profession and "heart" are reasons for admiration.

Again, the specific outcome of the case need not be mentioned, frankly, I don't know what happened, but the best interests of the youth, the family and the community have undoubtedly been served through Judge Fraga's moral fiber.

An Ode to a Hat Still to be Had...

By MARIE MONAHAN

I THINK that I shall never see, a hat that I like much on me.

A hat to wear with lots of hair, one that takes me ANYWHERE. One that hugs & feels just right, that comes back home with me at night.

One that's not left on a chair, with my gloves, Everywhere!

A HAT to wear in rain or shine
That still retains its' shape divine!
A hat that fits well on the noggin'
That has the Other Women oglin'...

A HAT that's squash-proof, child-repellent, that's also chocolate-chew rebellent, a hat that scoffs at drippy cones, soot & soil & buttered scones.

A HAT that shouts the name Dache', a hat to wear by Night & Day. A hat that's absolutely Utterly! Foolish, fancy, floppy, flutterly!

A hat of which they write a Sonnet and ONE that kids won't sit upon it!

A hat that doesn't jiggle-joggle, a hat that really makes men goggle!

A HAT to make spirits soar
One designed by Christian Dior...
Could any Woman ask for more?

A HAT that's friyolous & frilly, a hat that Hubby thinks not silly. A hat that's versatile & Vogue-ish, with lots of that Get-Up & Go-ish!

Find me, friend, a handsome hat!
Not a tower of a flower or of Birds & Bees in bower,
Not a veritable April Shower,
Nothing, please, to overpower...

JUST A HAT, but one so chic, even strongest men go weak. One so very sure to please, that men fall down upon their knees.

One extracting backward glancing. One that even goes out dancing.

ONE with which we'll be enchanted, one we won't just take for granted. One that's stunning, soignee, sleek. One, the Last Word, One Unique!

One that's nifty, not so thrifty... What's THAT?

Luau Luncheon Features Island Decor and Dances

The third annual fund raising luncheon given by members of Valleymont Auxiliary to Booth Memorial Hospital was given on March 18 at the Bellegarde residence in Lafayette.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mesdames Edward Bellegarde, Keith Johnson and James Robertson.

The theme of the luncheon was a Hawaiian luau with the guests seated on floor cushions and the luncheon served to them on the appropriate grass mats.

Thanks to Trader Vic's generous loan of island decorations the Bellegarde residence was beautifully decorated to set the mood for the lovely luncheon and the wonderful Hawaiian dancing which followed the luau feast.

Honored guests were Mesdames Wallace Masters, Arthur Rice Milton Shriver and Douglas Sturges who entertained everyone with their authentic native dancing.

Mesdames Lewis Walton and Lyle Wilcox were hostesses at the first annual spring luncheon on March 4 when they entertained 12 girls for luncheon and bridge at the Wilcox's Walnut Creek home.

On March 13 the second luncheon was held at the Cooper residence in Lafayette with 20 guests attending for luncheon and bridge. Mesdames Charles Cooper, Dean La Field, George Maroney and Ralph Woods were hostesses.

Guests at the luau luncheon included Mesdames Frank Graer, Francis Morris. Paul Skreden. Clyde Behr. William Shipley, Walnut Creek; Ferrill Stewart of Walnut Creek; Joann Hess, Carl Mignacco, Robert Hoedel, Charles Cooper, John Grobe, Cameron Ninekirk, Raymond Sulprizio, Richard Fulgham, Elmer Shideler, Robert Hopper and Richard Kent of Lafayette; Robert Graper of El Cerrito; Kenneth Robertson and Timothy Lynch of Pleasant Hill; Charles Peterson of Santa Clara and Charles Troeger of Martinez.

Bulletins On Flood Fight Out

Will H. Perry r., director of the Contra Costa County Office of Civil Defense and Disaster, announced that distribution of the "Do It Yourself" flood fight bulletin prepared by the County Civil Defense Office, the Flood Control District and the County Public Works Department has been made in most of the low-lying areas of the county.

Persons living in a possible flood area who have not received a copy, may contact the County Civil Defense Office, 2130 Arnold Highway, Martinez.

"The County Civil Defense office is grateful to boy scouts, cub scouts, junior and senior women's club members and various community organizations for their help in distributing the pamphlet on a house-to-house basis," Perry said.

Letters to The Editor

DEATH PENALTY

Dear Editor:

I am sure your readers have a sufficient store of preconception about "death penalties."

Do you think it is really in the public interest to lend glib reenforcement to such a foggy moral stand? You "lean toward the death penalty" as though it were your choice of a new spring ensemble.

Can you envision the fragmented rationale which would lead a person to commit a premeditated capital crime?

The thinking of such a person and the bizarre result it produces is exactly what society feels compelled to judge. How much more ludicrous when a court sits in deliberation and arrives at the same conclusion?

This assumes, of course, that the ladies and gentlemen torn from their garden clubs and coupon clipping are capable of reaching profound judgement. Unfortunately, rendering a death penalty does seem "de profundis," literally.

Give some consideration to your statements before printing. Stop telling the mob what it wants to hear.

ROBERT O'CONNOR

LIONS-DEER

DEAR EDITOR:

Did it ever occur to anyone that there is a direct connection between the news story reporting the killing of a mountain lion on the slopes of Mt. Diablo last week and the news story of a couple of months ago reporting that the rangers were putting out hay to feed the deer starving to death, also on the slopes of Mt. Diablo?

Perhaps this might be a little food for thought for all those in our central county areas who complain that deer are eating up their gardens. The mountain lion is a natural check upon the deer population, for it is the deer's so-called "natural enemy," although that seems a poor term to use in view of the fact that just such inter-species predation is what results in the culling out of the unfit—the less wise, less fast, less alert members of a species—to the betterment of the species as a whole.

AN AREA CAN effectively provide food for only a given number of animal, and when the natural limitations on population growth are removed—in this case the mountain lions—the population grows out of bounds and the deer, searching for food to keep alive, start invading people's gardens, or else they just die of starvation.

Let me say also that the deer is certainly not ill-equipped for this contest with the lion, for two out of three escape when the lion attempts to capture them.

AS FAR as the lion being a menace to livestock, may I quote Jay Bruce, California State Lion Hunter "and probably the greatest mountain lion expert of all time," who says that of all the hundreds he has killed in all parts of the country, less than 15 per cent had the remains of livestock in their stomachs. I would be interested in seeing figures upon losses suffered by farmers due to the depredations of hungry deer.

Nor should people need fear them. It is well known among hikers in the Sierra Nevada that lions are shy and wary of humans. If I may quote again from "Birds and Mammals of the Sierra Nevada' by Sumner and Dixon:

"A camper need have no fear of being attacked by a mountain lion. Thousands of people lay their bedrolls down in the heart of lion country every night of the summer camping season, yet there have been only two or three authenticated attacks on human beings in North America since the coming of the white man. A person is hardly more likely to be attacked by a mountain lion than he is of being hit, while sleeping in the woods, by a meteor or a falling airplane."

LOTTERY

DEAR EDITOR:

A few days ago I sent you a memo suggesting a state lottery offering to give you some further data that might be used for a follow up.

I still haven't had anyone to say it isnt a good idea. I therefore enclose a little data on the subject. We had to legalize liquor. We can't control prostitution because its not supervised and we can't stop gambling, gaming or taking a chance (call it what you will.)

Wonder how many more home owners we'd have if taxes were 20, 25 or 50 per cent less? I almost forgot to mention every policy written by every insurance company in the world is nothing more than "taking a chance."

You Can Invest 40c for Your Children's Reading

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Several weeks ago this column asked—if our children read books in their leisure time—or do they mostly watch TV? After a brilliant discussion on the subject, I came to the conclusion that parents have a great influence on the reading habits of their children. If parents concentrate on TV, well—so do the kids. If parents read, this influences the young ones.

Of course, I thought I was Christopher Columbus—until I finished reading, "A Parent's Guide to Children's Reading." This handbook was initiated and sponsored by the National Book Committee to encourage children to read more widely.

Here's how to get it

The book was published inexpensively, with any profits going to the National Book Committee. If your bookstore does not have copies of the edition you want, order it this way!

For the pocket book edition: send 35 cents, plus 5 cents per copy for handling and postage, to Pocket Books, Inc., Mail Service Dept., 630 Fifth Ave., New York, N.Y.

For the hard-bound edition: send $2.95 to Doubleday & Company, Inc., Garden City, N.Y.

Instead of reviewing the book, let's read some of the paragraphs from the opening chapter, "Dear Parents:"

"If your child enjoys reading, take a bow. It probably means you enjoy reading, too, or that you have shown an interest in his reading. Consciously or unconsciously, you have influenced his reading from the first time he heard 'This little pig went to market.'

"By the time he enters first grade, he has had six years of 'education' with you as his teacher. It was very informal, of course, but it shows up in the child.

Everything you do...

"Every time you read aloud to the child, every time you introduce new storybook friends, every time you pay a visit to the library or read books of your own, you are exerting an influence on the child's reading.

"He sees by your action that you are interested in reading. So he realizes this is a pleasure to strive for. He'll do what he can to achieve this satisfaction. In this receptive state of mind, he learns more easily and quickly at school. Equally important is the fact that through reading he is growing and developing as a person.

"If you can provide him with continuing delight in reading, you are contributing to his development as a happy, self-sufficient individual.

"The guidance you give him in reading will be much more effective if it is in harmony with the guidance the teacher is giving at school. So it will be important for you to get acquainted with the teacher. Both of you have ideas and information that will be helpful to the other. The teacher can explain how reading skills are taught at school. From her experience with books and children, she can suggest stories that will win the child's affection. And from your intimate association with the child, you can help her know him better and work with him more effectively.

Do you have questions?

"I have written this handbook to give more detailed answers to the questions parents ask about their children's reading. Throughout the book I tell of specific activities which frequently help children to read with greater skill and with continuing pleasure.

"All of the suggestions are made in the light of what is known about the way children grow and the way they learn. In every case I have tried to spell out the reason why a handbook is an introduction to the basic principles of child psychology and elementary education.

"You will see that A Parent's Guide to Children's Reading is organized into six sections. The first one you are reading right now. The second, 'How You Can Help, Day In and Day Out,' gives suggestions for reading aloud, for introducing books and stories, for stirring the child's curiosity and for talking things over with him.

"The third section, 'Surround Him with Books,' gives suggestions for getting the books he needs, how to use the library, how to develop a home library and how to buy books. Part four, 'How Reading Is Taught Today,' is for those who want to know more about how children learn and how they are taught to read.

And a list of books

The fifth section, 'Books and Magazines for Children,' is an annotated list of children's books grouped by age, plus a directory of publishers. There is also a list of magazines—both juvenile and adult—which children enjoy. Section six lists books, pamphlets and 16mm films that tell parents about children's reading.

"Thus the last two sections of the handbook are working tools that you can turn to again and again for specific information."

That's the end of the quote. If it sounds good, try it—your investment is only 40 cents.

Cancer Crusade to Start Next Wednesday at Meet

Contra Costa County's 1959 Cancer Crusade will begin next Wednesday, when volunteer chairmen take off at Walnut Creek on a "Campaign Flight", Guy Spencer, crusade chairman, announced.

Revving up the energies of hundreds of volunteer workers from every section of the county will be medical and lay leaders in the American Cancer Society's annual educational and fund raising drive in April's month-long effort to save lives from cancer and raise dollars for reseach.

Speakers at the county-wide meeting to be held at 8 p.m. next Wednesday at Cancer Crusade headquarters at 1634 Main Street, Walnut Creek will include Dr. Frederick A. Pellegrin, president of the Contra Costa Branch of the cancer society. He will outline current cancer research developments.

"THE CANCER Story" will be told by Dr. A. R. Reinke of Concord. Dr. Charles J. Hart of Walnut Creek will speak on the present cancer control program.

Bay area radio and TV personality Del Courtney will be on deck with comments at the "Campaign Flight" meet and Lafayette's Jay Bedsworth will perform "campaign magic".

Dr. Donald L. Bittner, education chairman for the cancer society in Contra Costa County, will have a revolving projector at the meeting, showing slides of normal and cancerous cells.

The continuous slides will be open to public view this week end, today, tomorrow, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when Cancer Control Month officially opens by act of congress and proclamation of state and city officials.

THE TEMPORARY crusade headquarters at 1634 North Main in Walnut Creek, across from the El Rey theater and next door to Ed Boero's Sport Shop, are loaned to the Contra Costa Cancer Society through the cooperation of Eldo Ewert, said Dr. Jonas Schreider of Walnut Creek, member of the cancer society's board of trustees.

The drive launched next Wednesday will be the most intensive in history, county chairman Spencer said.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

The "Rainmaker"—presented by the Lafayette Dramateurs—drew many raves and many first nighters.

Lucille Wright invited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Foye of Livermore for dinner preceding the production at Town Hall and they wound up the full evening with dancing.

Many curious eyes were upon the fabulous diamond Lucille has been wearing since Christmas. I wonder, too!

The J. A. Hopkins were there as were Margie and Phil Bush, Trudie and Fred Cook and Charlotte Chapple, who was escorted by her son. The last three gals are members of Orinda Branch of AAUW which sponsored four nights of the production.

A very successful Washington's birthday dance was held at the spacious Donald Christie home in Orinda by Senior Scout Troop 402—Miramonte High.

Hostess, Ann Christie, presided at the punch bowl and was spotted serving (among the MANY) Sue Schilling, Carol Pedersen and Karen Fernsten — a former member of the troop. The girls wore multi-colored skirts and sweaters — the better to compliment the young men's casual attire.

The Paul Romaks of Danville were so intrigued with the Islands last year that they are planning a repeat trip in a month or so — by air. About due to sail for home from that same "lotus land" are Marge and Richard Starnes.

It was tea time in Sun Valley . . .

It was tea-time at gracious Nanette Briley's home in Sun Valley one day last week: a time for neighborhood chit-chat and the telling of fortunes from tea leaves. Nan was in peppermint pink — as was everything else from the frothy refreshments and linens to the large, fresh spring bouquets.

A few of her guests—stately Tess (Mrs. Sam) Adkins, Rosalie (Mrs. Walter) Turner and Valerie (Mrs. Lester) Thompson.

Eileen and Bill McLaren have been winter vacationing in Las Vegas where a MUST on their list was visiting Hoover Dam. A rare fete — it seems to me!

It HAD to happen! Remember my mentioning that the Priewes, Purringtons and Cuenins were off for two weeks of skiing at Sun Valley? Yep! Mary Lou (Priewe) broke her leg and had to be flown home.

Mothers of children who attend the new Indian Valley School in Walnut Creek have been asked to hostess dessert-bridge parties to benefit the school — and the first one to come forth (to my knowledge) is Martha Hartzell who entertained in her lovely home on Homestead Avenue.

Pat and John Raley (who are VERY active in same school functions) have as their guests, for two weeks, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Raley of Salt Lake City. At the last meeting — at Pat's home — of the Towhee unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Dorothy Brantley was welcomed as a new member and Marge Hillis became active after a year's absence.

Up to your knees in fuschia tulle. . .

Members of the Flicker Unit are the busy ones these days and are, literally, up to their knees in pink and fuchsia tulle—which, if they ever untangle, will transform Castlewood Country Club into a spun-sugar-dream on April 11. Time again for their fifth annual shindig. Boning up on the do's and don'ts of commentating is popular Danny Van Allen who will describe the lovely fashions from the "Clothes Horse" and "Tots and Teens" following the always delicious luncheon. Some of the committee members are the Mmes. Robert Ramelli (chairman), John Mozzetti, Jack Gordon, Earle Romack, Robert Schroeder, Howard Burk, Richard Lieber, Richard Olson and Robert Patrick.

Tickets are already being gobbled up—so call Mrs. Mozzetti, YE 4-9723, or Mrs. Burk, YE 5-2085, "right soon" if you don't want to miss this very special affair. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sly are having a party this month to honor their little son, Jimmie, on his first birthday. Some of the "VIP" guests will be his four grandparents and three big sisters, Kathy, Judy and Jackie.

The Fred Lathams recently entertained guests from Idaho Falls, Idaho — Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Latham. Among the "fun" things they did — an evening in the "City" with dinner at the "Shadows" followed by a visit to "Fack's 2" where fabulous George Shearing and his group were playing.

Landscape architect Frank Collins, has been busy visiting meetings of all the Therapy Center units — the better to outline and explain plans for the MUCH needed center landscaping. Following each meeting the gals have that "Fine! NOW let's get started!" feeling. Am keeping fingers crossed.

George and Betty Conti are two happy people these days! Little Kimberly was welcomed into their family at 4 a.m. not long ago. They hope to soon be down out of the clouds and back to living a normal life again.

Worth the trip . . . any old time!

Vivian and Bill Roberts took their children, Megan and Doug, on a sight seeing trip in the Gold Rush Country—complete with a picnic in Columbia State Park—worth the trip ANYTIME!

Dorothy and Bill Thompson, along with the Bob Coopers of Sacramento and the Charles Hervards of Diablo, went to King's Beach, Lake Tahoe for 10 days of skiing. Especially enjoyed Squaw Valley and report one "FUNderful" time. Shortly after their return, Dorothy and Bill dined at the officer's club on Treasure Island and went on to attend the Danny Kaye production.

Molly Szybalski, Grace Moran and Colette Barry were busy bees at Vivian Robert's home last week where all were working on the cute tallies to be used at the Hummingbird's St. Pat's card party to be held at the Oak Park Nut Bowl.

The "Lake Place" (Walnut Creek) home of Beverly and Bill Curtis was the setting for a St. Patrick's party with Betty and Sal Caruso and Evelyn and Norm Fletcher co-hosting.

Thirty guests were delighted upon seeing that a green carpet had been rolled down the walk-way. A buffet supper was served and dancing was sparked with the playing of Bongo drums by one of the guests. Dorothy and Ben Stotts were there—newly here from Arizona. Just happened to be Dorothy's birthday, too. Then there were Muriel Alexander, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Hanson, Lorraine and Dick Olson, Eileen and Bob Patrick (NATurally!) and Margaret and Harold Vincent.

Loved the story about the couple (names withheld) who, with their two small sons, attended the wedding of a relative in Lodi a week ago. At the most solemn point in the ceremony the totally uninhibited seven-year-old inquired, in an all too audible voice—"Mommie, how come I wasn't here when you and daddy were married?" (!!!).

Cal Alumni and Friends Planning Super Fling

University of California Alumni and their friends are eagerly awaiting the annual Spring Fling to be presented at the Elks Club in Walnut Creek April 3.

Many couples are planning pre-dance parties and the local committee members as well as over 200 sponsors are busy selling tickets for the gala affair.

Gordon Heche and his band will be featured and the evening will be further enlivened by the appearance of special guests from the University. President Kerr and Chancellor Seaborg, as well as coaches and their wives, have received invitations, according to Mrs. Greg Englehard, who is dance chairman this year.

Mel Arighi, Diablo Area Cal Alumni Chairman, has announced that Oski and the Glee Club Octet will appear as part of the excellent entertainment which can be anticipated by those who attend.

Proceeds from the dance will be used to finance a number of scholarships to students in the area who plan to enter the University of California for the fall semester. "The California Alumni Scholarship Program is carried on by over 60 local scholarship committees throughout the State," states Mel Arighi.

Arighi explained further that all funds raised in this area will be used to help as many local high school seniors as possible by grants of $400 scholarshpis.

Tickets for the dance may be obtained at the door on April 3, from any committee members, sponsors, or by calling Mrs. Englehard, CL 4-5754, or Harold Ipson, YE 4-6295.

Guide Dog Benefit Opens In Area Wednesday

By MARIE MONAHAN

The Contra Costa County Committee of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc. opens its 1959 membership and fund-raising drive Wednesday under the chairmanship of Mrs. Dorothy P. Ballachey of Lafayette.

She will be assisted in spearheading the funds to provide guide dogs for the blind by Mrs. Lester Hink Sr., also of Lafayette.

"Like a new lease on life," according to chairman Mrs. Ballachey, is the purpose of this non-profit organization which provides, along with the gift of the dog, a complete training program at the San Rafael school to give the blind the freedom of motion so necessary to compete in a sighted business world.

Among last year's 111 graduates are housewives, a practicing lawyer, a medical secretary, a carpenter, hair stylist, piano tuner and several switchboard operators. Earlier graduates of Guide Dogs have included two judges.

The campaign will kick-off with a membership luncheon at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco with many localities planning to attend.

The initial function will start the ball rolling for the $250,000 budget required annually to operate the school in Marin.

Unlike seeing-eye dogs, which blind persons must purchase themselves, the Guide Dogs are provided gratis to the blind persons but remain the property of the non-profit organization. The cost of training each man-dog unit is $1700, Mrs. Ballachey added, but when contrasted with the new horizons it opens for the sightless, it is a very rich investment.

Assisting Mrs. Ballachey and Mrs. Hink in the local membership drive are voluntary treasurer Jack Varner of the American Trust Company, Walnut Creek; membership secretary, Mrs. James Bailey of Walnut Creek; Walnut Creek Captain, Mrs. Richard Parker; Lafayette Captain, Mrs. Walter Young and Lafayette co-chairman, Mrs. J. E. Dunn.

In the Martinez area, the captain will be Mrs. Clarence Carlson assisted by Mrs. Carl Gabellini and heading the drive in the Danville-Diablo area is Mrs. Hugh Gorum of Diablo.

Reservations for the St. Francis luncheon have also been made by Orinda captain, Mrs. Hamilton Bonds, and her co-captain, Mrs. ohn Folliard. Also planning to attend are Mrs. Howard Whaley and Mrs. Robert Phillips, captain and co-captain respectively in the Pleasant Hill area: Concord captain, Mrs. David S. Wilson; Alamo captain, Mrs. William Taylor, and El Cerrito captain, Mrs. Robert Singer.

Contributions may be sent to the volunteer treasurer at the American Trust Company, 1366 Main Street, Walnut Creek. The campaign will continue through April.

A LARGE CROWD of well-wishers congratulated the former Carole Ann Yeager and Warren Hegg Jr. after their wedding at Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church. Carmel and Las Vegas were stopovers for them, on their way to Dallas, Tex.

Stevenson-Trachsel Rites Held

Baskets of red and white carnations were used as altar decor at the Third Brigade Chapel at Fort Ord, Saturday, for the marriage of Margaret Ann Stevenson of Pleasant Hill and Master Sgt. Philip Medrick Traschel, formerly of Fort Ord and now of Sacramento.

Major Milford Barrick was officiating pastor for the single-ring rites which took place at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Peggy, as the bride is known to her friends in this area, was given in marriage by Captain John Turpin, with whom the groom served in Korea in 1955-56.

A LIGHT blue wool suit was chosen for the bride as her wedding attire. This was accessorized with matiching small hat and a corsage of white orchids.

In a grey suit with grey, and white accessories was the honor matron, Mrs. Reuben Friedrich of Pleasant Hill, who pinned a pink camellia corsage to her ensemble.

Standing at the altar with the benedict as best man was Reuben Friedrich of Pleasant Hill, who served with him in the Aleutians during World War II combat.

Among those present for the ceremony was the bride's young son, Master Charles Stevenson, student at Fair Oaks School.

Peggy has resided on Flora Court in Pleasant Hill for nearly eight years, and was one of the residents of that area most active in campaigning for highway signals at the Fair Oaks School crossing.

HER PARENTS are Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Billings of Oakland. Parents of the groom are deceased.

Friends extended felicitations at a champagne reception and buffet at the Fort Ord quarters of Capt. and Mrs. Turpin, after which the justweds departed for a short honeymoon in Carmel area.

They have purchased a new home in North Highlands, suburb of Sacramento, where Pat is stationed with the United States Army Advisory Group for California National Guard.

HER TWENTIETH birthday was a big day for Miss Judith Eggerts of Walnut Creek. That was the day it became known that she will marry Laird Eickmeyer of Orinda. Both are now taking advanced studies.

Service is Organized

Organization of the "All-U-Need Service" for the central county area was announced this week by Mrs. Vivian Wheaton of Lafayette, operator.

She said that the service will provide its customers with contractors and workmen of reliable quality and staff members for such services as plumbing, auto repair, towing, electrical, television and radio service, locksmith, carpentry, janitorial service, nursing care and baby sitting.

Her organization will pay the bills for the work done and make arrangements with the customer for monthly payments.

For any of the above services, the prospective customer need only dial YE 4-3848, and she will do the rest, Mrs. Wheaton said. The new agency receives its commission from the firm providing the service.

Berkeley Ceremony Unites Irma McLeod, Jerry Sather

By ROSE HAWKINS

Forsaking plans for a white wedding in the fall because of seafaring schedules, Irma McLeod of Maraianne Drive, Lafayette, anad Jerry Lee Sather of Oakland were wed at a simple ceremony Saturday morning, March 21, attended by the immediate members of their families.

Irma is the daughter of Mrs. Sylvia McLeod of Lafayette and the late Donald R. McLeod.

Conducting the wedding ceremony at the South Berkeley Congregational Church was the Reverend Dr. Fred Stripp, professor of Theological University.

The church was decorated with white stock, carnations and snapdragons.

Irma was lovely in a navy blue dressmaker suit with white accessories, carrying a bouquet of white orchids.

Mrs. Donald R. McLeo gave away her daughter in marriage. Miss Beatrice Church of Vallejo, a former nurse's training classmate, was the maid of honor. Father Lester Westling, Episcopalean priest of Oakland, was the best man.

Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Sather, former Oaklander, now of Paso Robles.

On March 10, the California Public Utilities Commission handed down a 3-to-2 decision denying, for the most part, our applications to discontinue certain little-used California passenger trains. This decision has caused some misunderstanding of our feelings about passenger train service. THE TRUTH IS...

WE WANT TO RUN PASSENGER TRAINS

We're in the business of running trains—both passenger and freight—and we expect to be running them for a long time to come. We want to make it very clear just how we feel about our passenger service.

1 We want to run passenger trains that you need and use. We welcome passenger business and we hope more people will ride our trains.

2 We want our passenger trains to be good trains. We think our passenger service is as good as any in the country...and we intend to keep it that way.

3 We feel, however, that it is only sensible to discontinue those trains which so few people use that the trains obviously are no longer needed.

ARE WE ACTING IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST?

Yes! Say these Commissioners...

Last week, C. Lyn Fox, President of the California Public Utilities Commission, and Commissioner Matthew J. Dooley, who presided and heard all evidence at the hearings, took sharp issue with many opinions expressed in the March 10 decision of the other three Commissioners.

In their dissenting statement Commissioners Fox and Dooley said that Southern Pacific "... is to be commended rather than condemned for initiating economies designed to reduce its out-of-pocket loss and thus enable it to continue on a reasonable basis a public passenger service which will meet the public need and convenience as demonstrated by present usage."

They further said, "... Southern Pacific ... has met fully the burden of proof necessary to sustain its application...."

"In no instance does the daily average number of through revenue passengers carried between major termini by any one of these six trains equal one bus load. To require applicant to continue to provide railway passenger service for a single bus load of passengers is uneconomical in the extreme."

The dissenting Commissioners pointed out that, although they were keenly aware that a utility incurs an obligation to meet demands of public convenience and necessity, as an economic factor any deficit suffered due to passenger train losses must be subsidized by agricultural, industrial and governmental shippers. They said that in the present case the majority decision "ignores the economics of the situation in general and of California shippers ... in particular."

The two Commissioners further stated that they had "... been unable to find in the record any evidence indicating, in the slightest degree, any lack of integrity in applicant's presentation. In this connection it is significant that the presiding Commissioner ... found no lack of integrity in their development and presentation."

And they concluded, "There comes a time when those charged with the responsibility of regulating public utilities should face up to the facts of change and act with objectivity and reason. That time has arrived in the State of California."

Omricon Chapter Will Install

Tau Omicron Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their March 17 meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Wall of Lafayette. Mrs. Wall and Mrs. Martin Rockey, Walnut Creek, her co-hostess, cleverly carried out a St. Patrick's Day theme in decor and refreshments.

The agenda for the meeting was the election of new officers. The following will be installed in May: President, Mrs. Raymond Ferrarri, Walnut Creek; vice-president, Mrs. Martin Rockey; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. L. Olson, Pleasant Hill; recording secretary, Mrs. Robert Werum, Lafayette; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Wall, and council delegate, Mrs. Vic Lattaner, Lafayette.

Mrs. Leslie Kerns of Danville, county chairman, at the business session will call for reports from the centers and committees.

Fertilize Your Camellias Now As Blooms Stop

1. Many rhododendrons are blooming — or will be soon — which means it's a good time to shop for these regal beauties.

2. As blooms stop on camellias, feed with acid-type fertilizer or liquid fish. Three or four alternate feedings with these can be made between now and late summer.

3. That fragrance you may have been noticing this month is likely Victorian Box (Pittosporum undulatum). It can be planted now for rapid growth and fragrance next year.

4. Keep a constant watch over new growth on roses. Haul out the spray gun at first sign of aphis and spray thoroughly, and follow with a regular spray program thereafter.

Your Garden

Don't Get Carried Away About Lawns; Watch Mix

The type of grass we grow can make such a difference. So often planting time we get carried away.

Our mind's eye pictures a future putting green and we plant accordingly—heavy on Bents and other fine-bladed grass. Come summer and we do something else when we should be watering. The results: Trouble.

Not to discourage the amateur greenskeeper who will really give a lawn the attention it deserves, his "green" can be the envy of the neighborhood. But from experience, we caution the man who has other plans for his time, or him who has dogs and small children to "clean up" his lawn.

FORTUNATELY the seed companies put out more than one mix to choose from. In addition, local members of the California Association of Nurserymen often have their own mixes prepared to specification. These run from mixes you can plant primarily for looks to those you want for hard use. Be sure to specify.

The old faithful of most lawn mixes is Kentucky Blue Grass. Slow to germinate, it is both fairly fine bladed and tough. On one side are the finer Fescues and Bents; on the other, course Fescues and Ryes. The latter two are fast growing and quick on the rebound when damaged by hard use.

Substitutes for these are Clover and Dichondra. Clover is not a good choice in plantings by itself, but scattered into the seed bed, it often stays green even when other grasses brown off through neglect. Dichondra is for use by itself, fairly tough and seldom in need of mowing.

PERHAPS THE two toughest grasses available are Bermuda and Zoysia. On the theory that Bermuda will eventually take over anyway, some people plant it. Both Bermuda and Zoysia turn brown in winter, but a sowing of rye each fall will keep these lawns green the year round.

We don't pretend to recommend what's best for you. For general use, a general mix will do. But if you have a special problem, ask your local nurseryman.

'League' Controversy Continues

Realignment Problem Still Unsolved; Scribe Proposes

By ERWIN MATTSON

There has been a great deal of controversy in recent weeks regarding the problem of the realignment of prep schools in the area.

The plans have been many and the discussions which at times have turned into arguments have been long and often.

THE END RESULT has been a lot of confusion as to just "which is what."

To simplify the whole matter, a committee was set up to study the problem which is always a headache at its best in a fast growing area.

They came up with numerous proposals with many ramifications. The problem is one of setting schools up comparable size and proximity into various leagues.

Tradition, natural rivalries and many other factors result in a wide difference in opinion.

In a final vote the league moved for a two division set up of 10 teams each instead of the present three divisions.

LIKE EVERY OTHER proposal, it has its shortcomings such as being too big and cumbersome with no room for practice games under such a set up.

The present Foothill Division has been in operation but one year, but has produced some top flight competition and it proved to be a good set up particularly in regards to the proximity and resulting natural rivalry of the schools.

Members of the Foothill Division are Piedmont, Miramonte, Acalanes, Las Lomas and San Ramon High.

MEMBERS OF THE Foothill Division are dissatisfied with a break up of the circuit in 1960-61 and simply made application to the North Coast Section for recognition as a league. It was done before in Marin County in a similar realignment.

The trouble is that some have taken it as a personal rebuff and rumors have developed into a statement of untrue facts by some.

It's difficult, if not impossible, to be unprejudiced in such a case.

Each looks at it from his own point of view which is, after all, not so wrong in itself.

The difficulty lies in respecting the viewpoints of others and not making personal issues of the matter.

IT'S TO BE HOPED that what is finally done is best for each school involved and that a feeling of solving rather than creating problems prevails.

★ ★ ★ ★

One thing certain is that this year's county track team is bound to be one of, if not the best ever. The schools appear to have enough scattered strength to make the final track production a grand finale.

The Contra Costa teams have set a lot of top Bay Area marks and more than one county mark appears to be ready to go by the boards. The race for county track titles should be a dilly!!

DIXON FARMER, Miramonte's flash, makes headlines each week with his versatile runnings ways.

He wins a different event each week and looks to be capable of three county firsts just as he did last year.

He would be a big enough point winner in the North Coast meet so that a come through performance on the part of one or more other Miramonte performers could find Miramonte ending up with the North Coast title.

SEE WHERE COACH Tony Knapp is leading Pittsburg High after a most successful 10 year tenure which saw him win seven grid titles and tie for another.

Tony has not only produced top teams—he has done a good all round job in the field of team attitude and team control.

He goes to Utah as top assistant to John Ralston, recently appointed head football coach.

Utah's gain is Pittsburg's loss in many ways.

Tony was a fine competitor and performer on his own when he played football and baseball at Idaho. He made All Pacific Coast as an end and his coaching record proves him to be an equally apt teacher of the game.

PH Rams Bow on Diamond To Las Lomas Knight Nine

Last Friday afternoon found the Las Lomas Knights defeating the Pleasant Hill Rams 5-3 in a ball game played at Walnut Creek.

The Knights' big gun was pitcher-fielder Don Hopkins who was the only player to get more than one hit when he accounted for a pair of singles.

HIS FIRST HIT drove home Bob Gomez in the first frame to give the Knights the lead which they never relinquished.

The Rams did tie it at 1-1 in the top of the second when Dave Shepard and Jim Maples singled. Bob Brandes followed with a run-producing double.

The Knights took the lead in their term at bat when Terry Sieberling scored on Eric Nankevil's single.

The Knights iced the game in the third with a three-run outburst when Hopkins led off with his second single and then three batters, Jeff Beanbien, Larry Drummond and Nankevil walked to score Hopkins.

Clark Harris with a 3-2 count was hit by a pitched ball to load the bases and Dick Dodge followed with a two run-producing single to left center, making the count 5-1.

THAT ENDED the Knights scoring and while the Rams put on a two-run rally in the seventh, it fell short and the Knights chalked up the 6-3 win.

The Rams two runs came when Bill Locatelli was safe on an error and Bill Chappell clobbered one over the leftfield fence for a homer.

Batteries: Pleasant Hill—Juarez, Beardsley and Adams. Las Lomas — Hopkins, Harmon and Dodge.

Antioch Panthers Rip Mats 24-3 in Diamond Landslide

The Antioch Panthers pounded the Miramonte Matadors last Thursday afternoon for 15 hits and a 24-3 win.

Miramonte started off well enough, getting all three of their runs in the first inning with two of them coming when Brad Peters tripled. Rob Anthonisen also tripled for the Mats.

THE MATADOR lead was short-lived, however, as Antioch came back in their first time at bat to score four runs and take the lead.

Rich Reeves led the hit parade with a two-run homer.

Kent wound up as the game's top hitter with wo for four, scoring three runs and batting in three more.

THE ORINDA nine used five pitchers in an attempt to stop Antioch but to no avail.

They scored four in the second, one in the third, eight in the fifth and seven in the sixth.

Miramonte helped Antioch with six errors while Antioch had but one.

Ivar Kent in pitching the win, struck out 13 and walked one.

Batteries: Antioch — Kent and Rodgers; Miramonte — Hancock, Hilger (2), Anthonisen (5), Gilbert (5), Johnson (6) and Welch, Albo (5).

Tom Meschery Is Named Member Of Top Quintet

Tom Meschery, leading rebounder for the Galloping Gaels of Saint Mary's College, has been named to the 1959 Catholic College All American basketball team, it was announced today.

Besides Sophomore Meschery the 10-man All American squad consists of Alan Seiden and Tony Jackson, both of St. John's (N. Y.); Tom Hawkins, Notre Dame; Bob Ferry, St. Louis; John Egan, Providence; Charley Brown, Seattle; Dennis Boone, Regis (Colo.); Al Butler, Niagara, and Bob McNeill, St. Joseph's (Pa.).

Honorable mention went to 10 other bay area men, including Dick Sigaty, LaRoy Doss, and Joe Barry of Saint Mary's. Others include John Cunningham, Dave Lillevand and Mike Preaseau of Mel Prescott, Jim Russi, Frank the University of San Francisco; Sobrero and Jim Taylor of Santa Clara.

This is the second annual team selected for the Catholic Digest by a panel of 10 leading coaches. Aside from ability, the only requirement for selection is that the player be competing for a Catholic College.

Commission OKs DA Salary, Job Change Requests

The Contra Costa Civil Service Commission has approved District Attorney John Nejedly's request that examinations for assistant district attorney be held.

The exams will be open to any attorney in the state with six years in practice.

THE POSITION, left vacant by the resignation of Thomas J. McBride, was formerly promotional with two years in the DA's office as the requirement.

The commission also approved the creation of positions of chief criminal deputy, chief civil deputy, and chief area deputy, who will be in charge of the Richmond office of the Contra Costa District Attorney's office.

The commission also recommended to the supervisors the approval of the new salary schedule asked by Nejedly.

IT CALLS for ranges of $950 to $1155 for assistant district attorney, $862 to $1047 for chief civil and criminal deputies and $782 to $950 for chief area deputy.

The assistant district attorney's salary is now $905 to $1100 per month.

Dons Edge California Jr. Varsity In Come From Behind Performance

The Acalanes Don varsity baseball team staged a come from behind performance last Thursday afternoon to edge the University of California Junior varsity 9-8 in a game played at the Lafayette field.

The Cal nine started out in impressive fashion when they scored four runs in the opening frame and made it 5-0 with another run in the top of the fourth.

IN THE BOTTOM of the fourth the Don bats got into action when Gary Hansen cracked out a double. Mike Kritscher tripled, Lou Pejovich followed with a walk. Tom Strain hit a two run double and Gary Breklse singled. It all added up to four runs.

Cal came back with a pair of runs in the fifth and Acalanes kept pace when Kritscher and Strain walked and both scored on Den Nelson's single to left center to score one.

The winning run followed when Stew Fox, running for Lou Cosso, who had walked, came in from third when a play was made on Bob Marello who had doubled and overan second.

EACH CLUB wound up with ten hits and while Acalanes played errorless ball, Cal committed two boots.

The visitors scored a lone run in the sixth and once again the Dons kept pace when Bob Gillham singled to drive home Hansen from second who had led off with a walk.

The Dons sewed it up in the final frame after going into it trailing 8-7. Acalanes won when they scored two runs after two were out with the big blow coming on a double off the bat of Gary Hansen.

Batteries: Cal — Hirst, Monico (3), B. Duey (4), McDonald (6) and Wagner; Acalanes — Toll, Strain (3), Kritscher (5) and Pejovich.

Bears Drop Cats In Ice Hockey

Sunday night provided a real thriller for the spectators at the Walnut Creek Ice Rink.

In the two games played, the puck found the net eight times. In the first game played between the Bears and Panthers, Bobby Peacock scored both goals for the Bears, giving the Bears a 2-0 victory.

In the second game the Lions fought to the bitter end, but ended up with a 4-2 defeat by the Cougars.

Goals scored by the Cougars were made by Bob Mellis, Bob Richmond and two for Billy Peacock.

Mike Bonnington scored both goals for the Lions with an assist by David Slay and Gary Armstrong on the second goal.

The current hockey season will end the last part of April and resume again the first part of October.

Pass English Or Repeat Course, Board Decrees

From now on students of the Acalanes High School District will be required to get passing grades in English before they can advance from one class to a higher one.

This decision was made by the board of trustees at its regular meeting recently held in Acalanes High School.

ACTING UPON a recommendation of Superintendent of Schools Neil Parsons, the board said students must obtain a passing grade in English courses before they can advance to the next year's English class.

Up to this time, if student flunked a course he could go on to a higher class.

This could be a continuing state of affairs until he reached the top class where passing would be a condition of graduation.

EXCEPT FOR shop classes, there are no other directly related courses which a student has been able to advance without passing.

In the social studies, Parsons pointed out, a student could fail World Geography but could go on to take U. S. History.

THREE YEARS of English are required for graduation.

The board unanimously adopted the policy.

Recently at Sugar Bowl, Charlie White of Walnut Creek won the Oakland Ski Club Championships. He was fourth in the downhill, but came up first in the 30 gate slalom. This gave him a combined time of 2.15.07 and the championship.

Second was Ken Senley with a 2.15.09.

Mammoth Mountain has plenty of packed powder on all slopes and trails. At Sugar Bowl and Donner Summit there is good skiing and the new St. Moritz Lodge is now open. It is located on Ski Run Boulevard near Country Road. This will provide more area for skiers, who are already thick on the slopes.

Ted Beam and his family were up at the Reno Ski Bowl on Mount Rose recently. They stayed at the Sky Tavern nearby and skied the T-bar. Beam, when he was 15, won the Oregon State Championship.

Warriors Nail Berkeley Bears; Enter Playoffs

The Walnut Creek Warriors nailed the Berkeley Bears on the ice in Berkeley Sunday night 7-2.

Harry Harrison of the Warriors came up with two goals and two assists while Ken Simon followed Harrison's example. Kim Forby, John Walker and Russ Tolchard came up with one goal apiece.

Walnut Creek scored five goals in the first period to sink the Bear attack.

The Warriors go Sunday night against the Sacramento Ice Hockey League champs.

Twilight Golf Tourney Slated

The first in a series of Twilight Golf tournaments was played Sunday evening at Meadowbrook Golf Club.

Recent winners of play at the club have been Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gaughn and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilson who tied for first place in the husband and wife twosome.

Winners of the low gross were Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hagerty and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hoskinsons.

PH Racqueteers Dump Acalanes

The Pleasant Hill Rams posted their sixth win of the season as against one loss when they defeated the Acalanes Dons 6-1 in matches played on the Lafayette Courts March 19.

Winners for the Rams were John Cavanagh, Dave Grove, Herb Johnson, Bob McQuivey and Dick Schogren in the singles.

Dick Clark and Buck Bento were doubles winners. The setback was the first loss of the season for the Don netmen.

County Joins CD Exercise

Contra Costa County was one of 43 northern and central California counties which took part in a major civil defense staff exercise this week.

The test exercise involved the emergency welfare and medical and health services in support areas (reception areas) of the cities and counties and is part of the state's and counties' continuing program of evaluating California's resources to meet disaster conditions.

Assumption of the exercise was that strategic evacuation has taken place, which means that non-essential people from evacuation areas, upon strategic warning due to the worsening of the international situation, have evacuated to reception areas days or weeks in advance of an actual attack.

April is annually proclaimed Cancer Control Month by Presidential proclamation. At the same time the American Cancer Society conducts its fund-raising and education Crusade. Help support it.

Let Toads Sit on 'Em! Don't Eat!

GORDON W. CUMMINGS, who has been named manager of the new Pay Less Drug Store in Pleasant Hill, has been a resident of the area for 10 years.

Recently, several children who had eaten wild mushrooms in Contra Costa County required treatment by their physicians.

"Mushrooms are tasty, but their close relatives, the toadstools are poisonous and you can't tell them apart", said Dr. Warren A. Ketterer, assistant health officer.

After each of our rains, Contra Costa's mushroom and toadstool crops flourish. With succulent-looking delicacies popping up on all the hillsides, scores of "mushroom sportsmen" are out on the hunt.

"If you go picking—enjoy the fresh air and the search—but do not eat these dangerous prizes," adds the Health Department's Accident Prevention Chief.

Parents are urged to remove mushrooms from their yards regularly before their children pick them.

If the youngsters unwittingly eat these "wild mushrooms" they may come down with severe diarrhea, cramps and prostration. These are signs of "mushroom" poisoning and require medical attention.

GLYNN E. TUCKER is general manager and vice president of the Skaggs Pay Less Drug Stores in California. His headquarters are in the Oakland store which is the location of the Pay Less general offices.

"BUD" SEMRAU will be general manager of the supermarket unit of the new Pay Less Shopping Center in Pleasant Hill. Semrau occupied one of the first homes in the Fair Oaks district some nine years ago.

Pay Less Names Store Managers; Supermarket

Gordon W. Cummings of 101 Beverly Drive, Pleasant Hill, has recently been appointed manager of the new Pay Less Drug Store, a unit of the Pay Less Shopping Center now being erected at 2130 Contra Costa Highway, Pleasant Hill.

According to Glynn E. Tucker, vice president of the drug chain, Cummings brings to his position 14 years of experience with Pay Less in various posts.

"Cummings has managed cosmetic, liquor, sporting goods, candy and tobacco departments, and has been a general store supervisor in our Oakland Pay Less Drug Store," Tucker stated.

Cummings has been with Pay Less since 1942, with the exception of a 3½ year enlistment in the U. S. Air Force. He resides in Pleasant Hill with his wife and an 8 year old daughter.

Cumming's assistant manager will be Alfred Frye, who has had 13 years experience with Pay Less in Sacramento. Frye is married and has four children. His residence will be at 1951 Peggy Drive in Pleasant Hill.

The camera and cosmetic sections of the new store will be headed by Richard Burson, formerly of the Pay Less Drug Stores in Spokane and Yakima, Washington. He will live, with his wife and two children at 1213 Aspen Drive, Concord.

As general manager of the Supermarket unit of the new Pay Less Shopping Center, "Bud" Semrau brings a wealth of grocery experience to his position.

And, he is no newcomer to Contra Costa County, having been a resident for the last nine years; was in fact, one of the first to occupy a new home in the Fair Oaks District of Pleasant Hill.

"Bud" is a graduate of Stanford, and with the exception of college years and three years naval service, has been working in and managing food stores since 1934.

"Bud" has four children, and he has a realistic view of the budget problems of the modern family. Upon his appointment, "Bud" said, "Our goal is to make the Pay Less Supermarket Central Contra Costa's family market."

"Bud" will have as his assistant and grocery department manager, Herb Aubry, who has lived with his wife Betty and two sons, at 105 Bridge Road, Pleasant Hill, for the past 12 years.

Herb has been in the food business for 20 years, with Pay Less for the past five years.

During World War II he flew a B-17 in the European Theater.

Unqualified Persons are Realtor Topic

Members of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board discussed the problem of persons who are not qualified entering real estate sales in the area at a Mart breakfast, Monday morning at the El Nido.

The program was conducted by the Public Relations and Publicity Committee.

It was announced that the California Real Estate Association's 12th annual educational and sales conference will be held April 15 in the Oakland auditorium.

Anti-Litter Campaign To Begin

Although litter bags will not be available for distribution at the outset, Contra Costa County's six-week "highway anti-litter campaign" will begin Wednesday on schedule, backed up by pledges of strict enforcement by state and county police agencies.

The campaign, under auspices of the Contra Costa County Highway Cleanup Committee, headed by Chairman W. G. Buchanan of the board of supervisors, is designed to cut down the littering of roadsides and parks by thoughtless motorists and illicit refuse dumpers.

The committee was organized about five years ago and reorganized in 1957.

At a meeting Thursday presided over by Chief Sanitarian Thomas McMorrow in the absence of Supervisor Buchanan, the committee voted to expend its entire treasury balance of $570 on the purchase of litter bags for distribution to the public through service stations.

H. N. "Scotty" Broatch said an order for about 25,000 of the printed, yellow-colored bags will be placed immediately, but that delivery can not be assured immediately.

The bags will be delivered to gas stations by members of the Contra Costa Oil Information Committee, headed by John Tonti of Martinez.

Undersheriff Harry Ramsey and Highway Patrol Captain R. R. Magill said orders have gone out to their staffs for strict enforcement of the state penal code section, which imposes a maximum fine of $500 or six months on conviction of highway littering, County Ordinance 1279, which offers a $50 reward for information leading to the conviction of litterbugs.

Magill said his squad has been issuing citations to illicit roadside dumpers for some time. Ramsay reported that the anti-litter campaign has been discussed by Sheriff Walter Young s staff, and that all patrol cars will carry a copy of the county ordinance.

Double parking on a busy street can cause accidents, warns the National Automobile Club.

Las Lomas Dropped, Rams Win, As Acalanes Dons Wrap Pitt Pirates

In recent track meets the Acalanes Dons defeated the Pitt Pirates, the San Ramon Wolves dropped the Las Lomas thinclads and the Pleasant Hill Ram cinder squad toppled the Alhambra Bulldogs.

Here's how the matches went:

THE SAN RAMON varsity track team defeated the Las Lomas varsity in a meet at Danville with a 68-44 win after the Bees dropped the Knights 88-25.

San Ramon's margin in the varsity meet was due in large to a pair of double winners in Bill Hersley who won the 120 yard laws at 22.6.

George Kovlery found the range in the shot and won at 48 feet even and then the discuss toss at 139-8.

The Knights ran in their share of firsts when Dave Tweek took the high jump at 5-6; Bob Johnson won the 880 in 209; Kenny Bernhart toured the 440 in 56.6 and Pete Havens hit the tape at 23.6 in the 220 yard dash.

THE ACALANES track squads made a clean sweep of it when the varsity won a duel meet by a 66-47 score while the Bees won a tri-meet affair with 69½ points to 62 for the Pittsburg Pirates and 8½ for Pittsburg Junior High.

Dewaine Stults was a big point getter for the Don Varsity copping a pair of firsts when he heaved the 12 pound shot 47-8½ and tossed the discus 141-1. Don Steve Lientz tied for a first in the high jump at 5-9 as did Tim Scott in the pole vault at 11-6.

Leo Macfarlane, senior distance flash, toured the four lap mile event for a win when he stopped the clocks at 4:38.4.

BRUCE DODGE with a 54.1 in the 440 was another first place winner for the Acalanes team. The Dons final win came in the relay which was copped in 1:36.4.

In the Bee meet Warren Adams was the Dons big point getter winning a pair of first as he won the discus at 116 and the 120 lows with a tie of 15.2 along with a third place in the 70 yard highs.

THE PLEASANT HILL track squads flexed their muscles and came up with a 79½-33½ win in the varsity week while taking the Alhambra Bulldogs in the lightweight contest 81-32.

Roger Foulk was a point getter when he placed second for the Rams in the discus after winning the shot at 52-11.

Top performers for Pleasant Hill was Tom Webb who took a second in the broad jump, while winning the 100 yard dash in 10.6 and the 20 in 23.8 and then topped it off by running a leg on the winning relay team.

Harry Drake was another Ram who was a standout when he ran away with the 120 yard high hurdles in 15.4 and the 180 yard lows in 21-flat, along with tieing for third in the high jump with Alhambra's Larry Knapp.

THE EVENT was won by the Bulldog's Jerry Greene who jumped six feet one half inch, a season's best to date.

The Rams really put points on 220 mile and broad jump.

In the Bee meet the Rams were paced by Jim Hinds who copped the shot putt at 49 feet, the 150 in 17.1 and added points with a second in the discus and a spot on the winning relay team.

Firm Executive, Dies in Hawaii

Edgar Morgan Barker of Orinda, vice president in charge of production for Calaveras Cement Company, died last Thursday in Honolulu from complications following a stroke suffered on March 12.

Mr. Barker joined Calaveras in 1947 as manager of its San Andreas, Calif., plant. He held this position until his appointment as vice president in the company's San Francisco office in 1953.

Born in Globe, Arizona, on March 5, 1909, Mr. Barker received a B.S. degree in mining and metallurgy from the University of Utah in 1931.

Active in mining circles for many years, Mr. Barker was general chairman of the national convention of the American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical, and Petroleum Engineers held in San Francisco last month.

Mr. Barker is survived by his wife, Phyllis Kiesel Barker of 8 Tappan Court; his son, Stephen K. Barker; his mother, Mrs. Edgar Barker, of Berkeley; two brothers, Charles Barker, of Los Angeles, and Robert Barker, M.D., of Modesto; a sister, Mrs. Helen Baker, of Los Angeles.

Also two aunts, Mrs. Edith Hoffman and Mrs. Rachel Hoffman, both of Los Gatos; and his brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Kiesel.

Chrysanthemum Care Topic of Club Talk

The Hilltop Garden Club of Orinda held its monthly meeting on March 17, at the home of Mrs. F. M. See at 12 El Verano. Mrs. George Bowersox of Lafayette was the speaker.

Mrs. Bowersox, an authority on chrysanthemums, and whose article on this flower appeared in Sunset Magazine, spoke on their culture and care. Her very interesting talk was interspersed with many amusing anecdotes from her personal experiences, both as a gardener and as a speaker on flowers.

She also gave some pointers on the care of other kinds of plants.

Brownies Meet

Brownie Troop 112 of Orinda, voted to use the money in their treasury to buy material to make 16-inch yarn dolls to be presented to the children at state hospital.

The girls were delighted with their Easter service project and completed the dolls in two meetings.

Leader Mrs. Paul Catti, Jr., and Mrs. Don Creagmile, say the girls had almost as much fun making them as the children who will receive them.

Troop members are Lizbeth Catti, Kathy Ann Creagmile, Marsha Brooks, Cidney Easterbrook, Barbara Braly, Kathleen Jackson, Carol Carloch, Juliette Ohleyer and Denise Davidson.

Ralph Hickcox Named To Tire Firm Post

Ralph T. Hickcox of Orinda has been appointed technical assistant to the president of the Oliver Tire and Rubber Company of Oakland, it was announced by Griffith F. Oliver, president.

Hickcox joined Oliver in January 1958. He was educated in chemical engineering at the University of California and formerly was West Coast manager of the Goodyear Chemical Division, San Francisco.

Swedish Tenor Plans Recital

Tenor Jussi Bjoerling just arrived from Sweden for his current American concert tour which will include a recital at the Opera House April 20, under the auspices of the California Civic Music and Arts Foundation. His present tour will take him to 20 cities in the South and on the West Coast, and will be his last until the spring of 1961.

Next season he rejoins the Metropolitan Opera Company in the fall, and will spend the spring in Europe.

Valley Park More Briones Land Sought

The County Park Commission acted upon a request from the Contra Costa County Park and Recreation Council for the purchase of additional park land in Briones Valley at a recent meeting.

The Commission voted to recommend to the Board of Supervisors that they ask the East Bay Municipal Utilities District to give the county an opportunity to acquire land made available by a change in the dam site.

A letter requesting the move of the Commission from William Drake, president of the Park and Recreation Council, stated that purchase of this area would make Briones the usable park site it should be.

Relocation of the Briones Valley dam to a spot further downstream than originally planned leaves an area of relatively level land between the new reservoir and the 1430-acre Briones Park in the hills now being purchased by the county.

On January 28, the county announced purchase of the third unit in Briones Park, bringing the total area owned to 429 acres.

The Board of Supervisors ordered payment of $53,000 plus $12,660 interest under the 10-year contract. The land is leased for grazing pending county development of the park.

Scouting Costs To be Studied At Meeting

Costs of scouting will be the subject to analysis and serious study at meetings of the operating committees of the Mt. Diablo Boy Scout Council at Acalanes High School April 6, according to A. F. Bray, council president.

Budget planning for the 1960 calendar year will include a consideration of the services and expenditures to be allocated to advancement, leadership training, organization and extension, health and safety, camping and activities, as well as other administrative budget items.

Current financial status, and what must be done about it, will be the matter of business for the finance committee.

All members of council and district operating committees are invited to participate in a general meeting at 7:30. A prize will be awarded the district with the best attendance.
